The Space Around Us

Sundaram Tagore Gallery, 57-59 Hollywood Road, Central, Hong Kong
Until 25 April 2010

New works by American artist Joan Venum inspired by India. Composed of broad fields of colour, the paintings invite viewers into a realm governed by imagination and nature. Collapsed horizon lines conjure an infinite and encompassing space. This newest series of oils emerged from Venum's recent journey through India. Deeply influenced by the dramatic colours of the Subcontinent, Venum's work has become bolder and more sensuous.
