

Love on the menu
The union of Samanta Pong and Lambert Lau follows miles of travel and loads of calories

• CITY C2

Movers and shakers
Billionaire Steve Wynn shares his journey from bingo hall manager to casino king

• BUSINESS B5

Out of luck
Villarreal take down Kitchee, but the local champions put up a brave fight

• SPORT C12

South China Morning Post

南華早報

PUBLISHED SINCE 1903 / VOLUME LXVII / NO 146

Saturday, May 28, 2011 / See live updates at www.scmp.com / HK$7.00

A14 Saturday, May 28, 2011

South China Morning Post

BACK PAGE

Dinka Group at Pagarau Cattle Camp, 2006.

Humanity laid bare

The faces and scenes we meet through Sebastiao Salgado's lens are haunting: Indian coffee growers, Vietnamese boatpeople, forgotten landscapes and the impact of globalisation on humankind. Salgado, a Brazilian, has been called the world's most important photographer of the early 21st century. This week his debut solo exhibition in Hong Kong opened at Sundaram Tagore Gallery in Central.

The Gold Mine, Serra Pelada, Brazil, 1986.

Iceberg Between Paulet Islands and Shetland Islar Antarctica, 2005.

Church Gate Station, Western Railroad Line, Bombay, India, 1995.

Children's Ward in the Korem Refugee Camp, 1984.

Boat People, Beach of Vung Tau, Vietnam, 1995.

Zo's Group, State of Para, Brazil, 2009.

Sahara, Algeria, 2009.