

where®

THE COMPLETE GUIDE TO GO // WWW.WHEREMAGAZINE.COM

HONG KONG
DECEMBER 2008

SUNDARAM'S CHOICE

The economy might be struggling, but Hollywood Road, Hong Kong's famed art corridor, is still thriving. Filled with an endless supply of galleries and antique houses, it's been dubbed one of the world's ten best shopping streets. The latest addition comes in the form of Sundaram Tagore, a bright space filled with vibrant contemporary works personally selected by its namesake, a notable New York-based curator and descendant of influential poet and Nobel Prize winner Rabindranath Tagore. 57-59 Hollywood Rd., Central, 2581-9678.