Sundaram Tagore Gallery

Hong Kong

Sundaram Tagore Gallery opened its doors in 2000 with a mission to foster the exchange of ideas between different cultures. With three locations in New York, Hong Kong and Beverly Hills, the stable of transnational artists straddles the terrain of east and west. The artists hail from such countries as India, Japan, Korea, Uzbekistan, Mexico, Europe and America. The galleries have become known for cultural activities and collaborative events across the world.
